11 XII. DEMAND FOR JUDGMENT

12 Defendant denies each and every allegation contained in the Demand for Judgment of 13 Plaintiff's Complaint, including the allegations contained in the Paragraphs designated "a" through 14 "k" of same.

15 GENERAL DENIAL

16 Any allegation in the Complaint that is not specifically admitted is denied.

17 AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

18 1. Plaintiff's Complaint, and each and every cause of action contained therein, is 19 barred by the substantive immunity provided by the Protection of Lawful Commerce in Arms
20 Act, 15 U.S.C. §§ 7901-03.

21 2. Plaintiff lacks Article III Standing to bring this suit.

22 3. Plaintiff's claims fail due to a lack of proximate causation.

23 4. Plaintiff's Complaint, and each and every cause of action contained therein, fails
24 to state facts sufficient to state a claim.

5. Each of Plaintiff's causes of action in the Complaint are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitations, thereby barring recovery of any damages, or a reduction thereto. Specifically, Defendant contends that Plaintiff's Complaint is barred, in whole or in part, by the one-year statute of limitations applicable to consumer fraud claims, A.R.S. § 12-541 (however, pursuant to this Court's March 25, 2024 Order (ECF Doc. 50), Plaintiff's Arizona Consumer Fraud Act ("CFA") claim (Count Seven of the Complaint) was dismissed); two-year statute of limitations for tort claims and negligence claims, A.R.S. § 12-542; the three-year statute of limitations, which applies to claims for restitution, A.R.S. § 12-543; the four-year statute of limitations, which is applicable to claims for unjust enrichment, A.R.S. § 12-550.

6. Plaintiff failed to add parties indispensable to this case, including, but not limited to, the United States Government (including but not limited to the DOJ, ATF, ICE, DEA, FBI and DHS), the alleged straw purchasers identified or unidentified in the Complaint, the alleged firearm traffickers identified and unidentified in the Complaint, the people who allegedly committed crimes with firearms sold by defendants, Mexican government, military, and law enforcement officials who supply illegal firearms to cartels, the foreign sources of firearms for cartels in Mexico, including those located in Central and South America, and the cartel members, associates, or agents thereof.

7. Any damages suffered by Plaintiff were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by the failure of Plaintiff to exercise reasonable care in curtailing and/or remedying the ongoing violence inflicted by the cartels on its own people, and therefore, Plaintiff's recovery, if any, must be diminished by the proportion of the negligence, acquiescence, and/or inaction of Plaintiff, which proximately caused or contributed to Plaintiff's alleged damages.

8. Any damages suffered by Plaintiff were proximately caused, in whole or in part, by the negligence or other actionable conduct of persons or entities other than Loan Prairie. Therefore, should Loan Prairie be found liable to Plaintiff as a result of the incidents alleged in the Complaint, the amount of Plaintiff's recovery, if any, should be no greater than an amount which is equal to Loan Prairie's proportionate share, if any, of the combined negligence or other actionable conduct of those persons or entities whose negligence or actionable conduct

1 proximately caused Plaintiff's alleged damages.

2 9. Plaintiff has failed to mitigate its damages, if any, suffered as a result of the 3 incidents set forth in the Complaint.

4 10. Plaintiff's claims for damages are barred by the economic loss rule.

5 11. Any damages suffered by Plaintiff were a direct and proximate result of 6 superseding and intervening cause(s) based on the numerous criminal actions committed
7 subsequent to any sale of firearms by Loan Prairie and before the alleged harm to Plaintiff.

8 12. Plaintiff is estopped from claiming the damages alleged against SnG in the 9 Complaint because of Plaintiff's negligence, improper conduct, acquiescence and/or inaction in 10 creating, failing to curtail or remedy the ongoing violence inflicted by the cartels on its own
11 people, including the doctrine of unclean hands, including estoppel by representation, estoppel
12 by acquiescence, equitable estoppel and estoppel by convention. Plaintiff has presented or stated
13 facts that were not true and upon which Defendant detrimentally relied, including that it would 14 police its borders, stop corruption and the illegal flow of firearms within its country, and would 15 make efforts to prevent and deter cartel violence, drug violence and related firearms crimes. In 16 addition, Plaintiff's own negligence, improper conduct, acquiescence, and/or inaction in failing 17 to curtail or remedy cartel and drug violence while intentionally and/or negligently ignoring and 18 turning a blind eye to such issues precludes Plaintiff from bringing this lawsuit. Plaintiff's 19 alleged injuries/damages were caused by its own illegal activities or the illegal activities of 20 persons under its control. Such illegal activities would include, but are not limited to, illegal
21 conduct with the cartels, police and law enforcement corruption, allowing persons to illegally
22 possess firearms, obtaining firearms from illegal sources, intentionally and/or negligently
23 ignoring and turning a blind eye to drug, cartel and illegal firearms trafficking activities in 24 Mexico, and/or other illegal schemes or conduct that resulted in harm to Mexico's citizens
25 and/or violence by the cartels. Further, Plaintiff has failed to control the illegal importation of 26 firearms into Mexico on multiple borders, eliminate, curtail or remedy cartel violence, and 27 Plaintiff's own nonfeasance and malfeasance with respect to allowing the cartels to operate
28 and/or intentionally and/or negligently ignoring and turning a blind eye to drug, cartel and

1 illegal firearms trafficking activities and issues in Mexico has contributed to the alleged injuries
2 sustained by Plaintiff.

3 13. Plaintiff's claims for punitive and/or exemplary damages are precluded by 4 operation of Ariz. Rev. Stat. § 12-689.

5 14. Plaintiff is not entitled to a damage award violative of Loan Prairie's due process
6 and equal protection rights, other rights set forth in the United States Constitution or rights
7 granted by the Arizona Constitution. Loan Prairie expressly reserves any and all constitutional 8 defenses, claims, and arguments against the imposition of punitive damages against it or the 9 amount of same or in any other manner relating to punitive damages. Plaintiff's claim for 10 punitive damages against Loan Prairie: violates the Sixth Amendment of the United States
11 Constitution because Loan Prairie is not informed of the nature and cause of the accusations
12 against it, and thus, the allegations are void for vagueness; violates Loan Prairie's rights to 13 substantive and procedural due process as provided in the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of 14 the United States Constitution; violates the due process clause of Fourteenth Amendment to the 15 United States Constitution; violates Loan Prairie's right to equal protection as provided in the 16 Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution; violates Loan Prairie's right to 17 contract, as provided in Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution; exposes Loan
18 Prairie to double jeopardy in violation of the Fifth Amendment of the United States
19 Constitution; constitutes an impermissible burden on international and interstate commerce in 20 violation of Article I, Section 8 of the United States Constitution; violates the separation of 21 powers doctrine embodied in Article VI of the United States Constitution; and constitutes the 22 imposition of an excessive fine in violation of Loan Prairie's rights provided in the Eighth
23 Amendment of the United States Constitution. Plaintiff's claim for punitive or exemplary
24 damages is further barred by Article 2, Section 4, of the Arizona Constitution.

25 15. Loan Prairie invokes the provisions of Title 12, Chapter 16 of the Arizona Revised
26 Statutes, the Uniform Contribution Among Tortfeasors Act, including the right to contribution, 27 pro rata shares, release, comparative negligence, the lack of joint and several liability, and 28 apportionment of fault.

1 16. Plaintiff's claims against Loan Prairie are barred or should be reduced by the
2 comparative fault of others, including, but not limited to, Plaintiff, pursuant to Ariz. Rev. Stat. §
3 12-2506.

4 17. Loan Prairie did not owe Plaintiff a legal duty to protect Plaintiff or its citizens
5 from the particular risk of harm that caused, or was the substantial factor in causing, the 6 incidents alleged in the Complaint.

7 18. Plaintiff lacks prudential standing based on its quasi-sovereign interest in the 8 health and well-being of its residents because parens patriae standing should not be recognized
9 in a foreign nation unless there is a clear indication of intent to grant such standing expressed by 10 the Supreme Court or by the two coordinate branches of government.

11 19. All or a portion of Plaintiff's claims are barred due to the law of the case doctrine.

12 20. The Court lacks subject matter jurisdiction over this case.

13 21. There was no special relationship between Loan Prairie and Plaintiff and/or the 14 third-party actors at fault, so Loan Prairie did not owe Plaintiff a duty as a matter of law.

15 22. Plaintiff's claims are in violation of the First Amendment of the United States
16 Constitution, which guarantees Loan Prairie's right to commercial free speech.

17 23. Plaintiff's claims are in violation of the Second Amendment of the United States
18 Constitution, which guarantees the right to bear arms, and the citizenry's right to access such 19 arms from Defendant.

20 24. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the provisions of the Commerce Clause of the 21 Constitution of the United States, Article I, Section 8.

22 25. Plaintiff's negligent entrustment claim fails because this cause of action is 23 inapplicable in the context of the sales of chattel alleged in the Complaint.

24 26. Plaintiff's claims for relief before the Court violate the United States and Arizona
25 State constitutional separation of powers in that Plaintiff seeks to have the judicial branch create 26 legislative policy.

27 27. Plaintiff's claims are too remote and derivative to permit recovery as a matter of 28 law.

28. Plaintiff's Complaint, which aggregates unidentified shootings by unidentified persons in unidentified circumstances over an unspecified period of time, is barred by the Seventh Amendment of the Constitution of the United States.

29. Plaintiff's claims are barred by the doctrine of latches.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Loan Prairie demands a trial by jury of all issues triable of right by a jury in this action.

WHEREFORE, Loan Prairie hereby requests the following relief:

1. That Plaintiff takes nothing by its Complaint;
2. That Plaintiff's Complaint be dismissed with prejudice on the merits;
3. That Loan Prairie recovers its costs, attorney's fees, and disbursements herein; and
4. Such other relief as the Court herein deems just and equitable.
